The Path of Excellence – A Road Less Traveled

Introducing our Keynote Speaker

Ted Corcoran/DTM, Past International President

Ted Corcoran joined Fingal toastmasters club in 1985 in Dublin. Having served at club and district level, he was elected District Governor of District 71 for 1994/1995 and led his district to Presidents Distinguished District status, finishing second in the world in achievements that year.

This led to his election for a two-year term as an International Director in St Louis, Missouri, in 1996, representing all Toastmasters throughout the rest of the world, outside North America.

In 2000, in Miami, Ted was elected 3rd Vice President and went on to serve as International President in 2003/2004. Achieving the rank of being the first and only, European, to do so in the 90-year history of the organization.

As President, Ted presided over an International Board of 23, along with a membership population of 200,000 in 10,000 clubs across 90 countries, several of which he visited during his year of office.

In 2011/12 Ted served as Region Advisor for Region 11 of Toastmasters International which brought him to Scotland, Switzerland, Belgium, India and South Africa.

He is an honorary member of several toastmaster clubs and regularly attends both the Fingal and Swords clubs in Dublin.

In addition to his activities in Toastmasters, Ted has been a member of Rotary International since 1991 and served as the President of the Dublin Rotary club (founded in 1911) in 2001/2002.
